

HELEN CLARK

Primera Ministra de Nueva Zelanda (1999 - 2008), Administradora del Programa de Desarrollo de Naciones Unidas (2009 - 2017), líder global en temas de Desarrollo Sostenible y Equidad de Género

A respected global leader in sustainable development, gender equality and international cooperation

Served three successive terms as Prime Minister of New Zealand between 1999 and 2008

Became the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) Administrator for two terms from 2009 to 2017, the first woman to lead the organization

Chair of the United Nations Development Group, a committee consisting of the Heads of all UN funds, programmes and departments working on development issues

“No-one is going to put out a red carpet for any of us. You have to knock those doors down.”

Helen Clark

Helen Clark is a respected global leader in sustainable development, gender equality and international co-operation. She served three successive terms as Prime Minister of New Zealand between 1999 and 2008. While in government, she led policy debate on a wide range of economic, social, environmental and cultural issues, including sustainability and climate change.

She then became the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) Administrator for two terms from 2009 to 2017, the first woman to lead the organisation. She was also the Chair of the United Nations Development Group, a committee consisting of the Heads of all UN funds, programmes and departments working on development issues.

In 2019 Helen Clark became patron of The Helen Clark Foundation. She is an active member of various international organisations.

TEMAS

Helen Clark tailors each presentation to the needs of her audience and is not limited to the topics listed below. Please ask us about any subject that interests you:

Sustainable development
Climate Change
Gender equality
International co-operation
Development issues

CONDICIONES

- Viaja desde: Nueva Zelanda
 - Rangos: Consultar tarifa con HiCue Speakers
-