“The power of a group connected to their vision is incredible”

Alvaro Vizcaino is a Spanish entrepreneur and survivor whose incredible story of resilience and determination has inspired thousands of people around the world. His extreme survival experience, after falling off a cliff and being severely injured on a remote beach, was made into a movie in the Netflix film “SOLO”.
Through his conferences, Alvaro shares life lessons about resilience, courage and the human capacity to overcome the most difficult challenges.

Personal Experience:

Extreme Survival Experience: In September 2014, Alvaro suffered an accident while surfing on the island of Fuerteventura in the Canary Islands. After falling off a cliff and breaking his hip and pelvis, he struggled for 48 hours to survive on a deserted beach before swimming out to sea and being rescued.

Author and Speaker: He has told his story in various forums and conferences, and is the author of several books where he describes his experience and the lessons he learned to transform " fear, into an opportunity".

Psychologist and coach: Alvaro has dedicated his life to the exploration of the human mind and its mechanisms.

Entrepreneur: Alvaro has managed to make his clients bill millions of euros thanks to his agency specialized in e-commerce.

Protagonist of the movie “SOLO”: His story was adapted to film in the movie “SOLO”-NETFLIX, which tells his incredible story of survival and struggle against the elements.

Recognized International Speaker: Alvaro has been invited to speak at numerous international events and conferences, where his story inspires and motivates audiences of all ages.

Impact and Vision:

Alvaro Vizcaino exemplifies the human capacity to face and overcome the most extreme challenges. His lectures are powerful and moving, leaving a lasting impression on those who have the opportunity to listen to him. The best part of his method is that he invites attendees to participate and apply it live. The goal is to transform the energy of "fear of change" into a powerful personal and collective vision.
